Tip of the Day

Host A Green Cleaning Party

Do a little Spring Cleaning—by getting rid of harmful chemicals in your home. Hold a fun event where you and your friends learn how to make non-toxic cleaners from common ingredients like vinegar and olive oil. Women's Voices for the Earth (WVE) will send you all the information you need (including recipe cards, supply lists, factsheets, and a DVD) to make your party a success. Read More

Rename A Species; Win A Prize!

What if the endangered Greater Sage Grouse was known as the Freedom Fowl? Would people pay more attention to it's plight? How about Roy, the Arroyo Toad? Have a little fun with the Endangered Species Coalition, and enter their contest to give a species a catchy new name. 1st prize is a specially designed Patagonia T-shirt; 2nd prize is our book. Blackle: A Google Custom Search Page

Check this out! Blackle saves energy because the screen is predominantly black. If you set Blackle as your home page, you will save a little bit of energy every time you load your Internet browser. Remember every bit counts! You can add it to your Google toolbar too. Read More

Protect Polar Bears By May 15th

This may be the last chance we have to influence one of the most important environmental decisions of our generation. Please sign this petition today and then send the link to at least 10 of your friends. The Bush administration has stalled a decision on whether to protect the polar bear while it rushes forward with Arctic oil and gas leases. But now a federal judge has ordered the administration to make a final decision by May 15th. With your help, 50,000 signatures will be delivered to the Interior Secretary by the deadline. The Next President's First Task

An inspiring manifesto from Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. in April's Vanity Fair. A plan to "abolish carbon as an energy source," and replace it with a "decarbonized" economy. Because carbon dependence "is subverting everything we value." Read More

Wear BLUE For Earth Day 2008

Want to stop global warming? Wear BLUE for Earth Day 2008! Join millions of people around the world who will be wearing BLUE to signify their vote for NO COAL. Today, April 22, make your voice heard. Pick up the phone: Call Congress at 202.224.3121 and ask for an immediate 'Moratorium on Coal' — a halt to the construction of any new conventional coal-fired power plants. Read More
